Owl Walk and Lunar Eclipse

February 10, 7pm at Willows at Brandow Point

Local bird expert Richard Guthrie will lead a walk to listen for owls "singing" with their romantic "Hoots" as this is their courtship period. We should arrive down by the riverside just in time to watch the moon disappear into a total lunar eclipse reaching its peak at 7:43 PM.

Catskill Creek Access

March 15, 7pm

GLT is working with Scenic Hudson to open up 144 acres on the Catskill Creek to the public for passive recreation. Come Learn about our plans for parking and trails and offer your suggestions.

Build a Birdhouse

April 8 (date tentative) time to be announced

Just in time for nesting season, build a bluebird or wood duck house to take home with you and enjoy another craft project to help the birds. With help from the Athens Sportsmen's Club and Athens Community Foundation.

Build a Fairy House

July 29, 1pm

A program especially for kids of all ages. Use natural materials from the landscape to create magical places for fairies and their friends. Along the way learn a bit about nature and what wild creatures (besides fairies) need to make their homes.
