

Membership Makes the Difference!

As a not-for-profit organization serving Greene County, contributions from members are the foundation of its work. It relies on the generosity of members to help conserve and improve the natural and historic value of the lands protected. Member's support provides the needed funds to work with land owners and local civic organizations to protect additional sites that add recreational and cultural benefits to Greene County.

Membership supports funding for projects such as:

- Willows Preservation & Restoration Project
- Community Grassland Conservation Initiative
- Coxsackie Creek Wetland Acquisition

& Effective Conservation
Since 2004

The Greene Land Trust is dedicated to protecting the many places that make Greene County a special place:

- Scenic vistas that inspired the Hudson River School of painters and have attracted visitors for generations
- Agricultural lands and the family farms they support, representing an essential part of our heritage and economy
- Open spaces that provide habitat for an abundance of wildlife and an array of recreation opportunities.

The Greene Land Trust believe that these things are an important part of the quality of life enjoyed by residents of Greene County. They deserve concern and care. The Land Trust works with public and private landowners to preserve these natural and cultural resources for future generations.

Join the Greene Land Trust and help protect lands essential to the health and history of its local communities.

Membership includes these benefits:

- Knowing you are helping to protect the natural and cultural resources of Greene County
- Invitations to members only events
- Discounts on programs
